

Catering

By Ava Manka

Table of contents

- What is a caterer? 2
- Do you want to be caterer? 3
- How do you become a caterer? 4
- Glossary 5
- Sources.....6

Q: What is a caterer?

A: A caterer is someone who makes foods to deliver to customers who order it for an event. The event might be a wedding , birthday party , shower , or an event to raise money for an important cause. A lot of time those kinds of events are put on with caterers. It is a service because a service is a thing that a person does for someone and a good is something that you can hold

This is some caterers cooking.

Q:Do you want to be a caterer?

A:There is a lot of competition and failure.You have to be able to run the business and give good food. People like food to be ready on time. Make sure you make your food cooked well because it is bad to have uncooked food.That could ruin your business. So check before you serve.

This might be some kinds of food that a caterer might make .

Q: How do you become a caterer?

A: If you want to become a caterer, you would need to:

- be an excellent cook
- be passionate
- work well with people
- to have perseverance
- to hire good workers and believe in them

You can do it with your family or friends or you can do it with both.

fun fact: Like many careers, catering takes a combination of training, and hard work to succeed.

Glossary

customers: Customers are people that might buy a good or a service from somebody.

good: A good is something that you can hold or eat like food. Caterers use goods in their service.

service: A service is someone who does or make you something.

SOURCES

Websites:

Become a caterer <http://fabjob.com/program/become-caterer/>

Food for thought about catering (article) http://articles.latimes.com/1991-08-30/business/fi-1562_1_catering-business

Caterer description

<http://www.sokanu.com/careers/caterer/>

About The Author

Ava Manka is in 3th grade she loves to write stories . She loves to play soccer and basketball. She also loves penguins if you go to her room you will see a lot of stuffed animal penguins .She is in a family of 5 . Her friends are her great grandpa tony , her stuffed animal bear and plankey and her stuffed animal penguins .

